

The Environmental and Biosystems Engineering Students Association (EBESA) in conjunction with the department organized an academic trip to Mombasa, from 25th to 28th September, 2014.

The Academic Trip is an important event in the calendar of the department since it brings together all the students in the department.