

Mr. Johnson Ireri Kinyua has been appointed the Director University Advancement in the Office of Vice Chancellor effective from 1st April 2015.

Johnson Kinyua holds MBA (Strategic Management), 2009 and B.Com (Management), 1999 from the University of Nairobi and currently finalising a PhD in Human Resources Management (2015).

He also holds Higher Diploma in HRM (2008) from Institute of HRM, Ethics Officers Certification Programme (EOCP), 2010 from Ethics Institute of South Africa and a Certificate in Volunteer Programme Development and Management (VPDM), 2009 from Xavier University, Philippines. He has also attended several seminars in South Africa, USA, Malawi and Kenya on Transformative Leadership, University Advancement, Fundraising and Alumni Relations.

He is immediate former Executive Director of University of Nairobi Alumni Association (UONAA) in charge of Alumni Relations and Networking, Fundraising and Friend-raising, Marketing and communications and Partnerships and Collaborations with industry partners.

Johnson has worked previously with VSO Jitolee in Malawi, National Volunteer Network of Kenya, United Nation Volunteers (UNV/UNDP) and KCA University in various management positions.