

CHANCELLOR TOURS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

The Chancellor, University of Nairobi, Dr. Vijoo Rattansi, made an extensive two-day tour of the Colleges of Humanities and Social Sciences among other colleges of the University of Nairobi on 4th and 5th August 2014. On 5th August 2014, she visited the School of Economics, where she signed the visitors' book. She commended the work done by the School, noting the importance of Economists in nation building. She emphasized that her dream is to see the University of Nairobi become among the top 10 Universities in the world over the next 5 years and urged all members to support her towards achievement of this vision.

On the tour the Chancellor was accompanied by the Vice-Chancellor, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor Academic Affairs, Deputy Vice-Chancellor Students' Affairs and Deputy Vice-Chancellor Research, Production and Extension, Principals of other University of Nairobi Colleges together with the College Management Board of College of Humanities and Social Sciences.

The Vice-Chancellor and Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Research, production and Extension challenged academic members of staff, more-so professors to be more innovative in sourcing for research grants and also play a leading role in research as they mentor junior staff and doctoral students.