

DIAMONDS IN THE ROUGH

Diamonds in the rough was this year's theme for the ACTUARY magazine. The ACTUARY is an annual magazine that is published by Nairobi University Actuarial Students' Association (N'ASA). The magazine gives an insight into N'ASA's activities, current market actuarial opportunities and interviews to the players in the actuarial field. N'ASA prides itself as the only student organization in the college of biological and physical science (CBPS) to have an annual publication.

The magazine was launched on the 27th of March at the Hotel Royal Orchid Azure in Westlands Nairobi. Guests who attended included TASK President and Chairman Alexander Forbes Mr. James Olubayi, TASK Vice ópresident and general manages actuarial at liberty life Mr Moses Mutuli, CEO DSG Venture Capital Heshan de Silva. Heshan de Silva shared his life challenges with the students who were among the guests.

The 2015 issue of the actuary gives an in-depth view on the newly soon to be rolled out Equity Bank's Paper-Thin Sim, Capital Gain Tax, and the British insurers getting into the Kenyan market. In the features section you will read about: All about Furore, Private equity firms Fallen oil prices, Student entrepreneurship.

Among the corporate bodies that saw a successive publication of the ACTUARY 2015 edition included Faventia Actuaries, Britam, Alexander Forbes, P&G, Prudential credit bank, DSG, ACTSERV Liberty life, Heritage, Hotel Royal Orchid Azure.
