

TERROR THREAT ALERT

The Inspector General of Police has warned that the Al shabaab terror group is planning attacks on Government installations, churches, Learning institutions, markets and shopping Malls. He has also reassured the citizenry that Security Agencies are consequently carrying out preemptive operations across the country to suppress the attacks. The University staff and students are hereby advised to continue being vigilant and collaborate with the security agencies. They may volunteer information relating to suspicious persons and luggage in the University by calling the University control room on any of the following numbers 0717035268, 0731453263, 020-4913149, 020-3318262, Police control room on 911,999 and 112 or the nearest security office. The security department reaffirm the commitment to always ensure a safe and secure environment for the University community and property