

Dr. James Kigera presents his PhD Proposal

Date and time:

Fri, 2015-06-19 07:41

Dr. James Kigera, a lecturer at the department presented his PhD proposal at the departmental level. In his study, he will explore the effects of analgesics on healing of bone fractures. Present during the presentation were members of faculty and students.