Students attending a practical class in the Histology laboratory

The Department of Human Anatomy has uploaded the histology course online since September 2014. The students can now access the online material online any time anywhere. The contents are made available on a weekly basis after which the students do an online exercise that automatically marked realtime. After the online exercise the students thereafter attend a common lab session at the end of the week regarding the things they had learnt that particular week.
