

Mechanical Engineering Academic Staff Training in E-learning

All academic staff members from the Department of Mechanical and Manufacturing Engineering were trained in use of the multimedia portal. They were trained in the Civil Engineering Computer Laboratory.

The elearning portal offers an interactive self learning materials anywhere anytime with instructor lead lectures online with a unique collection of on demand course content, featuring renowned scholars and academicians. It offers both online learning and blended learning through e-Learning portal.