

NDT Training at INST: Radiography

A two-weeks NDT Training was held at INST from 27/10/2014 to 07/11/2014. The training was sponsored by International Atomic Energy Agency and conducted by IAEA expert Abdslam Bensitel.

The main NDT method covered during this training was Industrial Radiography and included the following topics: Physical Principles of Radiography, Radiographic Equipment, Radiographic Techniques, Practical Work, Interpretation & Evaluation, Radiographic Quality & Exposure, Personal Safety & Radiation Protection, Photographic & Nonphotographic Recording, Processing of Radiographic Films, Radiographic Viewing & Interpretations, Codes & Standards. Participants in the training were drawn from various private companies and government institutions.