

COLLABORATIVE TRAINING AND RESEARCH

The Institute of Anthropology, Gender and African Studies has initiated a collaborative training and research venture between Western Michigan University, University of Arizona and the University of Nairobi.

The research will be titled “Documenting the daily lives and wellbeing of pastoralist youth in Northern Kenya”

It will involve training of UoN students, research and joint publication.

First training will be on 20th June to 30th June in Maralal, Samburu and research in West Pokot and Samburu.

The following will take part in the project:

1. Charles Hilton

Asst. Professor

Department of Anthropology

Grinnell College, U.S.A

2. Prof Belinda Straight

Professor of Anthropology

Western Michigan University

U.S.A

3. Ivy Pike

Prof of Anthropology

School of Anthropology

University of Arizona

U.S.A

Students on research team

Evelyne Mbithi (Anthropology)-4th Year

Doreen Odera (Anthropology)

Prescilla Magara(M.A. Gender)

Winnie Cherop (Anthropology)

Rogers Kiplimo (Anthropology)- 4th Year