

The Department of Sociology and Social Work holds a Stakeholders' Workshop

Date and time:

Wed, 2013-05-15 08:00

Location / Venue:

UoN Education Building Room 213

The Department of Sociology and Social Work held a Stakeholders' Workshop on Wednesday 15th May 2013 at the University of Nairobi Education Building Room 213. The objective of the workshop was to receive input and comments on the Department's Senate-approved courses and newly developed courses. Some of the proposed programmes that were presented and discussed include; Diploma in Disaster Management; Bachelor of Arts in Community Development and a Ph.D by Coursework and Dissertation.

The workshop was attended by Departmental staff and students, staff from the Department of Geography, Meteorology Department and the Institute of Anthropology, Gender and African Studies. Also present were representatives from Amani Counselling Centre, National Operation Centre, National Intelligence Service, Kenya Airports Authority, National Crime Research Centre, Kenya Police Training College and the Ministry of Gender.

The workshop was the first step towards a comprehensive review of the Department's curriculum. A 2 day residential Curriculum Review and Development Retreat will be held in June 2013.

