

Commissioning of Phase II data collection to Documentation of Women's Experiences with food security in 6 Counties

Date and time:

Tue, 2013-06-11 10:00

The African Women's Studies Centre under the food security project "Zero Tolerance to Hunger" has embarked on phase II of data collection to document women's experiences in food security; specifically to gather information on women's knowledge, experiences, attitudes, perceptions and practices in relation to food insecurity. Research teams have been commissioned to 6 Counties (Kirinyaga, Elgeyo Marakwet, Kisumu, Bungoma, Kwale and Kisii).

The exercise is being undertaken from June 11-15, 2013.

His Excellency Retired President Daniel Arap Moi meets the AWSC research team on their way to Elgeyo Marakwet where he gave his views in regard to food security, youth & leadership. On the far left is the research team leader Dr Margaret Jesang Hutchinson
