

THE INTERNATIONAL FRANCOPHONE DAY 2014

The French club (CEFRUNA) members were had the privilege to be part of the La SemaineInternationalede LaFrancophonie et La langue Francaise (International Francophonie Week)festivities which culminated in The International Francophone Day at Kenyatta university on Sunday 23rd march 2014. This is an annual festive, cultural and educational event that brings together students of the French language, teachers and other stakeholders including potential employers. The University of Nairobi had the honour of hosting the same event in 2012.