

Capacity Building Project Coordination Team Meeting

The Coordination team of the 'Towards Knowledge Societies: Empowering Communities for Prosperity' Project held a planning meeting on Tuesday 22nd October 2013. The meeting was chaired by Prof. Enos Njeru Principal, College of Humanities and Social Sciences, UoN and was held in the Principal's Board Room. The meeting was attended by representatives from the implementing institutions.

The capacity building project is funded by the Ford Foundation and its broad objective is to empower communities in Kenya for prosperity by equipping them with knowledge on good governance, leadership and human rights as enshrined in the Constitution of Kenya (2010). The project will be piloted in four counties namely; Kwale, Turkana, Makueni and Homabay and will be implemented by the University of Nairobi (UNESCO/UNITWIN Chair, Department of Sociology and Social Work, School of Law, Institute for Development Studies) in partnership with United States International University (School of Humanities and Social Sciences) and K-Rep Development Agency (KDA).
