

PRIME-K DONATES RESEARCH REFERENCE BOOKS TO CHS LIBRARY

Dr. Julius Oyugi from right, (Aim 3 Lead, PRIME-K) hands over research reference books to the College of Health science Library.

From left Collins Owek PRIME –K Manager, Wycliffe Ndege, PRIME-K Admin, Library staff, second last Librarian and lastly Dr. Julius Oyugi (Aim 3 Lead, PRIME-K)

Partnership for Innovative Medical Education in Kenya (PRIME-K) donated research reference books.

The University of Maryland Baltimore supported the procurement of reference books on research thematic areas:

- Research methodology in medical and biological sciences (2).
- Experimental and quasi –Experimental designs for research (2).
- Fundamentals of clinical trials (2).
- Research methods: A tool for life (2).
- Designing and conducting health surveys (2).
- A foundation for Analysis in the Health science (1).
- Data analysis using stata (2).
- Users guide to medical literature: Essentials of evidence-based clinical practice (2).
- Good clinical practices-standard operating procedures for clinical researches (2).
- Ethical issues in Clinical research (2).
- Clinical supervision: A competency based approach (2).
- Classroom instruction that works: Research based strategies for increasing student achievement (2).
- Methods in epidemiology research (2).