

Preps for 53rd graduation ceremony in top gear

Preparations for the University of Nairobi 53rd graduation ceremony set to take place on Friday, September 4, 2015 are currently underway.

Over 5000 graduands drawn from the Colleges of: Architecture and Engineering, Agriculture and Veterinary Sciences, Biological and Physical Sciences and Education and External Studies will be released into the job market.

Among the graduands will be the Justice of the Supreme Court of Kenya, Justice Prof. J.B. Ojwang', who will be awarded the first Doctor of Laws. This will be the fourth higher doctorate degree to be awarded at the University of Nairobi since its establishment.

With two more days to go, graduands are clearing from the university and hiring academic attire from the college Registrars.

The rehearsal ceremony will be held on September 3, 2015 at 10.00 am at the Chancellor's Court.
