

UON'S 53rd GRADUATION PREPARATIONS UNDERWAY

The University of Nairobi 53rd graduation ceremony preparations are under way. The ceremony that is set to take place on Friday, the 4th of September, 2015 will have over 5000 graduands being given the power to read. This will take place at the Chancellor's court, just next to the catering unit.

Among the graduands is the supreme court justice Prof. J. B. Ojwang', who will be the first in the history of the university of Nairobi and in Kenya graduating with a Doctor of Laws.

Other graduands have been drawn from the college of architecture and Engineering, College of Agriculture and Veterinary Services, the College of Biological and Physical Sciences and the College of Education and external services.

The hiring of the academic attire from the college Registrars is still on up until the 3rd of September, 2015. The attire is hired at a fee of Kshs. 3000. Those who intend to buy are advised to contact the deputy Registrar, Examinations (Administration), Central Examinations Centre at Chiromo Campus for more details.

The rehearsal ceremony is set for September, 3rd, 2015 at 10:00 am on the same venue.
