

Public Debate

Submitted by lowiti on Wed, 2013-04-24 15:34

The University of Nairobi in collaboration with the United States International University (USIU) has organized a public debate to be held on April 29th 2013 at the Main Campus Multipurpose Hall (8-4-4) commencing at 2.30 p.m. The theme of the debate is "Governance and a Sustainable Culture of Peace".

The debate is organized as part of the Wajibu Wetu Project, an initiative bringing together public and private universities to contribute towards the creation of a sustainable culture of peace. It is expected to look back at the way Kenyans voted peacefully and come up with messages of how this experience can be sustainable.

The keynote presentation will be delivered by Prof. Goran Hyden, a distinguished Professor Emeritus of Political Science who has done much work in East Africa.

Panelists

Prof. Michael Chege, Advisor Kenya Treasury Economic Planning

Prof. Winnie V. Mitullah, Director, Institute for Development Studies UoN

Prof. Patricia Kameri-Mbote, Dean School of Law, UoN

Prof. Karuti Kanyinga, Institute for Development Studies, UoN

Moderator: Louis Otieno KTN

ALL ARE WELCOME