

Kenya breaks 'Chinese-run cyber crime network'

Date and time:

Sat, 2014-12-13 13:21

Kenyan police have arrested 77 Chinese nationals on suspicion of running a cybercrime centre from homes in an upmarket area of the capital, Nairobi.

Officers believe the gang had been preparing to hack the country's communication systems and money laundering

Police find equipment capable of infiltrating bank accounts and cash machines in raids on homes in upmarket area of Nairobi