

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences recently installed state of the art Moot courts in the three campuses for the School of Law. The courts are located in Mombasa, Kisumu and Parklands campuses.

The courts are fitted with high speed wireless internet to enable the students carry out research as they practice.