

VC calls on staff deliver on Performance Contract targets

The Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Peter Mbithi, has challenged the University of Nairobi members of staff to deliver and surpass the Performance Contracts targets.

Prof. Mbithi was speaking at the signing of Performance Contracts with the central administration heads.

Prof. Mbithi briefed the departmental heads on the new performance contract 12th cycle guidelines that required him to sign the contracts with the Deputy Vice-Chancellors for the first time. He called on the central departmental heads to further cascade the Performance Contracts to their staff. During the ceremony, 21 central departments signed Performance Contracts with the Vice-Chancellor

“This process is now personalized and you have a personal responsibility to see to it that it is implemented. In deed you are expected to meet the Performance Contracts targets and surpass them,” said Prof. Mbithi.

He also called on the University managers to help in managing the University image and brand. He asked them to work as a team to help the university remain a centre of scholarly excellence.

Present during the signing ceremony were Prof. Bernard Njoroge, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (DVC), Administration and Finance, Prof. Henry Mutoro, DVC, Academic Affairs, Prof. Isaac Mbeche, DVC, Student Affairs, Prof. Lucy Irungu, DVC, Research, Production and Extension and College Principals and Deputy Principals.

-