The Kisumu Campus of the University of Nairobi held an Open Day from October 21-24, 2015 (has been holding an Open Day since October 21, 2015) at Aga Khan Hall, Kisumu County. The purpose of the event was (is) to show-case the University of Nairobi programmes in Kisumu Campus. The programmes are currently offered by the School of Education, School of Continuing and Distance Education, the School of Economics, the School of Law, the School of Business and the Faculty of Arts. The event targeted (targets) Kisumu, Siaya, Migori, Homa Bay, Kakamega, Bungoma, Kericho, Busia, Nyamira, and Kisii Counties. The event involved exhibitions by the University of Nairobi and other educational stakeholders.

The Open Day activities were launched with an advertising Caravan which was flagged off by Her Excellency, Ruth Odinga Busia, the Deputy Governor, Kisumu County, at 10.00 a.m. on October 21, 2015 from the University of Nairobi Town Campus (former British Council Library). In her flagging-off speech, the Deputy Governor encouraged the Kisumu Campus to offer courses that were relevant to the socio-economic needs of the region so as to enable its graduates to contribute to development. The Caravan toured the whole of Kisumu County and its environs for two days to advertise the Kisumu Campus Open Day.
