Location / Venue:

Aga Khan Hall

On October 23, 2015, the Open Day incorporated a graduation ceremony for certificate graduands of the School of Continuing and Distance Studies. The ceremony began with a procession of the graduands and lecturers from the Town Campus to Aga Khan Hall, led by the Salvation Army Brass Band.

Chairmen, directors, deans and the Deputy Principal of the College, gave speeches outlining the current and proposed programmes, emphasizing the position of the University of Nairobi as a premier institution of higher learning, promising to continue improving the quality of programmes to meet the country's demands, and encouraging the graduands to continue with their education up to the highest possible academic attainment.

In his speech, the Chief Guest, Prof. Julius Ogengø, the Director of CESSP, congratulated the graduands, and encouraged them to see their achievement as but a beginning in the journey of education, to seek continuous improvement in the programmes offered by the University of Nairobi and to be positive ambassadors of the University in their daily living and working lives. Prof. Ogengø presented each graduand with a certificate. The graduands also received a gift signifying their desire to continue their academic pursuits and publicizing the University of Nairobi.
