

CONGRATULATORY MESSAGE TO ALL SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS CLASS OF 2015 GRADUANDS

The school of Economics wishes to take this opportunity to congratulate all class of 2015 graduands a successful academic journey.

Your graduation today proves your hard work, determination and resilience. A reflection of where you have come from will validate the fact that achievement requires sacrifice, patience and passion.

We are confident that you will effectively and efficiently use the skills you have acquired to improve yourselves, solve complex societal challenges and improve humanity's welfare as we move towards the Sustainable Millennium Development Goals. Having studies at the best University and University of choice in Kenya, It is expected that you will strive to be the best in society.

My prayer is that you may continue to succeed in all your endeavors and in life.

Once again, on my own behalf and that of The School of Economics, I take this opportunity to congratulate you on your graduation today and wish you all the best in life.

Thank You.

Director,

School of Economics