W. Attorney,

111

As soon as our E.A. officers begin to go back, they will begin with one accord to say that they are not allowed to ship food stuffs, guns & amm. etc.

We had better get this settled up forthwith.

Arrangements have been made by N. & W. A. Dept. with Bd. of Customs whereby the Customs authorities at Liverpool have received these following instructions:-

"Waive all requirements, restrictions & prohibitions in regard to stores & personal effects" of Gov. officials civil or military leaving the port of Colome, on production of reasonable evidence of their travelling in special capacity."

I submit aft. previous had received accp. 12/12/14

i.e. the port of W. A. Steamers

understand
to include reasonable
amm. &
amm."
