Portuguese is engaged in re-organizing his forces and there is no further news.

Note as to Portuguese co-operation.
I am rather surprised that W.D. thinks the assistance of these troops (of whom we have had such bad reports) worth bearing

Have you any proposals regarding the employment in conjunction with your operations of Portuguese troops in Mozambique who number about 1,500 white and 2,800 natives?

Mr. Borthwick at Karonga is in communication with the Portuguese authorities with regard to situation on that frontier.
