Military graves
Care and maintenance.

Mil. Auths. inquire whether Govt. will undertake. Agree cordially & request Authority to make arrangements accordingly.

Lieut. Berkeley W. Butler

The proposal of the military authorities, especially, which is endorsed by the Post. Dept., certainly seems to be a right and desirable one.

But the matter appears to come within the competence of the Director of Graves Registration, & though it does not appear from the General and Dem. H. tables that the question of military graves in East Africa has been specifically provided
