

74.87 acres (Ex. 4837, 114) and £6031 value of H.L. 4302 proposed in 1889/94. This does not seem good business for the Govt., but in view of the increase in <sup>the</sup> price of land since 1914 it is possible that it is better than nothing to have a requirement set now.

? Comment to substance of the bill with Sir V. Buxton for confirmation, explaining as to Barstow

Dear Sir Victor,

A letter which I had just received from the State Park at Monte Carmine of the Dominican Republic are willing to accept the following in exchange for the land at Mygona.

1) 19 1/2 acres of land "Paratam"

This ~~last~~ word is as it appears in the list but ~~the name is not~~ is almost certainly known to us & it may be an error for "tiaratan", which is a codeword for "in vanity of" & i.e., words, a twisting of the word has a specific, affixing the
