We now know from 6/4/68 that only 1 rupee notes are required.

The designs for these notes are those marked "A", and I should think might be accepted. The preliminary order is for 800,000, on plain paper.

As regards the inscriptions for claims, the words are in both larger Arabic script, or any they are all right, I.B. will presumably therefore not suggest any alterations. A. is well wait for their verification.

In any case I think we must wait for a reply from Treas. to our letter on 53646 before definitely placing the order.
