Diechman.

We are in receipt of your letter of to-day with copy telegram received the 27th inst.

The suggestion is noted that the person able to identify Diechmann should take charge of him. From your letter we assume that what is required is ^{only} the presence of a person able to identify him, ~~only~~. We have written our Clients accordingly, and will advise you so soon as we hear from them the name of the person selected, the date of his departure and the boat by which he sails, as requested.

We are, Sir,

Yours obediently,

Raymond Barrett
