Mr. Parkison

as a general rule we do not pay but in this case the Comdr in a case of much more character than than the usual applicants as he was summoned <sup>to our a court of inquiry</sup> ~~spontaneously~~ & had therefore to come before us to furnish his engagement, thus long away & pay should be paid of his salary & expenses referred. I am pretty sure that expenses have in some previous occasions been paid to members called here for working for the app. in Ed. but I am afraid cannot remember the names of the candidates.

Mr B. Stanley,

Mr. B. usually deal with 2nd class app. & it might be well to follow this practice. * ~~the~~ We have precedent for paying rail fares for applicants who come up to be interviewed - by Customs officers.

* i.e. to pay
rail fare

When Freshets are poor ones & we do not pay them much where we do to be there.
I do decide generally that the 2nd class rail fare (not up) be paid in all cases where candidates for 2nd class appts come to C.O. to be interviewed by the P.S. & I would would apply the ruling to the case of Mr Roberts - 157

~~Mr. [unclear]~~

This is the front of the cap after speaking to you yesterday - I told him that his claim would be made if he put it in writing
but that no promise was made.
