The sale of the ordinary ordinary Government land which leases of Crown land in the East Africa Protectorate are sold.
 The alienation of Government land has been suspended during the war, and it is not yet known when it will be resumed, but when it is resumed, the general procedure shown in the leaflet will no doubt be followed.

A scheme for the grant of land in the H.
 Protectorate to men who have served in His Majesty's forces during the war has been considered by Commission appointed locally. The Commission's report has not yet, however, been received, and until it has been received and considered by the Secretary of State no information as to the details of scope of the scheme can be given. Any arrangements which may be approved will be ~~announced in the Government~~ ~~through the instrumentality of the Government~~ published in due course. Applications for grants of land cannot be registered until
