I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No 259 of the 8th of April & to inform you that the note with anticipation that the Assai of the Il Khatonyukye Tribes division have contributed a sum of Rs 10,250 for the improvement of the water supply in this country.

I approve of your proposal that the

any
and other sums which may be contributed by the masses or obtained from the masses money should be placed to a suspense
account.

3. I shall be glad to receive a report showing what work has been carried out, or ^{now} is in progress, since the date of the report by Mr. Walto forwarded with your despatch, No. 610, of the 25th of June 1914.

J. E. HARCOURT.
