TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES
OFFICERS-IN-CHARGE, MASA I RESERVE
AND N.F. DISTRICT

Recommends that they should be granted same allowance as Provincial Commrs viz:- Rs7.50 per diem

Mr. B. [unclear]

We have already granted the <sup>to the</sup> Prov. Commrs the Travelling and Transport Allowance of Prov. Commrs <sup>(100%)</sup>, and if, as the Govt states, the Officers-in-Charge in the Masa and N.F. Districts have the same obligation as Prov. Commrs there are good grounds for extending the privilege to them.

REC'D
22 APR 15

April 12th 1915.

Sir,

I have the honour to recommend that the Officer-in-Charge, Masai Reserve, and the Officer-in-Charge, Northern Frontier District, should draw travelling allowances equivalent to those of Provincial Commissioners viz: at the rate of Rs.7.50 per diem.

2. The officers selected for these two posts are required to spend a large part of their time in travelling and as their obligations are no less than those of Provincial Commissioners I consider that it is only fair that they should receive travelling allowance on the same scale.

3. I trust that you will be able to accord sanction to this.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your humble, obedient servant,
