Eldoret School now open to boarders - recommend Mr & Mrs Humphries to transfer to Eldoret & vacancy thus caused for Asst. Teacher & Headmistress at Nairobi to fill as far as possible in consultation with Mr Or.

Mr & Mrs Humphries

Notes Hoff list 28

In his report of 25 January last (11015), the J. A. S. said that there was still much to be done before the Eldoret School could take boarders. They have pushed on with the work pretty quickly.

Mr & Mrs Humphries were originally appointed Headmaster (£200) and Headmistress (£100) of the Central School, Eldoret in July, 1915.

In report last (36062) The Govt. recommended their re-appointment to the staff of the Nairobi 'A'
School and Mr Humphries was appointed Asst.
Master (£200-£250) and Mrs Humphries Head
mistress (£100).

They are applying to transfer to the Eldoret School.
This will mean a decrease of salary but a more independent position for Mr Humphries.
