REPORT ON WATER SUPPLY OF JUHALAND
SPECIAL WARRANT

Governor 707

Belfield

1915

20th Sept.

Reports issue for £1000 to meet expdre on salaries etc of Messrs J. M. Parkinson and H. K. Evans. Expdre will be met from savings.

Mr Bostonley

Mr Parkinson's salary

was at the rate of £<sup>1000</sup> a month, with field allowance of £45 a month. He was retained for 3 months on order to report on Juhaland. His salary & all " would therefore be about £460. He was given a 1st class passage home (£46) with half salary on the voyage (? £40). In addition, there is the pay, travelling expenses & of the Foreman of Works for the India with cost of transport for during the period of work. It seems therefore, that that £1,000 is a reasonable sum to provide for this expenditure.

? Approve the issue of this Special Warrant

[ I do not know if it is the intention to thank Mr Purkisson for the good work he has done ( as proposed by Mr Deal in his minute of 9/11 or 5-15-46 ) at this stage. If so we should do so soon before he leaves for the W Indies ( see Mr Green's minute of the same date on the same paper ) ]
