State that over-issue of pension for period 12.1.1920 - 30.4.1920 has been made to Mrs. Daysham asks whether, in view of lapse of time since over-issue, recovery should be effected.

The overpayment is in respect of a period 7 years ago & I would certainly not attempt to recover a penny of it: but it is not easy to understand from the statement how it happened. The pension seems to have ceased on 31.8.25.

? Note and say that it is not desired that recovery should be effected.

Very yours to O.M. Kanga &

The pension was presumably, received from the E.A. Common Charges account.
We are thus concerned, but I do not think we need concern them in the matter. Since the issue took place long ago & no new item w/ consequently appear in the account periodically furnished to them by the fact of course which my of challenge on the ground that has not yet been considered.

You m^d. see 8084/27 below, but I don't think it is part of
as these overagreements must have been made from the c/c of

I think we can proceed as proposed.
