The decision on 21302/44 does not appear to have been communicated to H.O.

Perhaps we had better

2nd this & say that after further consultation with the Gov. & S informed him in a despatch dated 21 June that steps shd. be taken to remove the differentiation in the railway tariff & to charge the same rate on goods of local manufacture as on imported articles, regard being had to the relative distances over which the goods are carried on the railway & to advise however that Gov. has also been told

I think it would be wisest to send copies of the Gov's letter & our reply in 21342/24, under cover of a short def.
suggesting that Messrs.
Kerr should be told that decision has been taken as in para 2 of
