No final draft can be prepared until we know (a) the date of reconstruction (b) the date on which the Gov. wishes the year to end and (c) until we receive the draft of the harbours lease.

There is also a small point in the last part of our agreed memo. In (c) of the "following conditions" we said "As regards customs duties no special concessions can be made to the new company other than those in the existing lease or draft railway lease". The words
