Major Grogan called today & promised that he would cover the Gov: on Thursday if he really before then.

He said that it was all over to write next & agreed that was settled after the discussion between the S. As. & Major Grogan, who refused to put his £250,000 figure in writing on the ground, substantially, that it was his original figure & that he was not open to bargaining.

My dear Amery,

Many thanks for your letter of 19th. I am quite sure you will see that those of us who have devoted much energy and spent much money in our endeavours to develop the trade of British East Africa will not be allowed to be deprived of the fruits of our enterprise and my trust is in you. The matter of the special haulage rate by which we have been penalised in the last year or two is of small account and if you don't see your way to giving us a refund we shall loyally accept your ruling.

Yours sincerely,

Macneil
