FIDELITY GUARANTEE.

Is advised against the establishment of a Public Officers Guarantee Fund. Considers existing system should be modified by the exclusion of all officers on the pensionable staff.

Kenya

Does not favour guarantee fund.
Only non-pensionable officers should be required to give security.

4/25
1/25

Uganda

Fidelity insurance should be abandoned if this cannot be done, a P.O. fund should be formed Fidelity insurance recalled for.

Somaliland

Favours abolition, if this cannot be done P.O. fund should be started & only non-pensionable officers should be required to contribute (if Kenya)

Nyasaland

Favours abolition; in any case could not run a local P.O. fund & suggests an "African" one: to open premium ind. in the country abolition of the system. <sup>in S. Africa</sup> But if Treasury have any objection to this course as regards Nyasaland and Somaliland, seeing that no steps have been taken to arrange for the entrance of some Officers in TT. against default. pending the result of this course.

I think Kenya might be allowed to continue the present system for non-permanent officers if they wish to do so after hearing that the system is scrapped in all the other S. A. Dependencies (assuming that that is arranged). otherwise I agree.

Yes.

W. C. S. 12.8.25

Personally I am sceptical as to the value of this precautionary system. But I do not think that we can

whether it or make the collection suggested by Kenzie, where G.L. Reg. 352 stands - That Reg. says quite definitely that officers entrusted with the receipt custody or disbursement are required to give security. The method by which security is given is left to local law & regulations.

n 50303/29

Let me understand it & A. Galt - (Mr. M. Robinson was of course included) we did write their views as to the advisability of certain changes the regulations. But before submitting the report to the statement that he is in favour of the alterations in A. Galt. I think the matter must be considered generally, in view of the fact that the reg<sup>n</sup> has not been altered in A. Galt nor (I believe) any other place. It seems to me the first thing to consider is whether the C. A. is to be amended - If so it might be more permissive (or more exacting) - But as it stands it is not incompatible with the other proposal.

Mr. Stanley

If you agree we might have this up at a Grand Council. I fancy that some of the colonies of which the staff is mainly non-European would be against abolishing security.

in each case the official concerned was not on the pensionable staff.

The number of posts to be guaranteed on this basis would be very small, and in respect of these it is recommended that the present system be retained. These views are accepted by this Government and I trust will command your approval.

I have the honour to be,
