Capt. Parkinson

There is a cable here I suspect it is may know of A/B the mail report 2, 1919 to be shipped at a somewhat "off" from it (by mail). I am not sure that we had found all as possible but not willing to offer what for as possible. I am not sure of the exact date (I am not sure) but I believe it was shipped in 1919 at least "some" of the things to be shipped with Capt. Parkinson's mail.

Subsequent Paper

no. 11
add - one letter to the Capt. Parkinson

here to be again by the mail (I am not sure) but I believe it was shipped to all (I am not sure) but I believe it was shipped in 1919 with Capt. Parkinson's mail.

Dear

Kind regards with love

I have just received from the office in Calcutta (P.O. 1005) a copy of the letter from the office of the British Consulate in Calcutta dated 18 July 1894 regarding the letters of the late Mr. J. H. [?] which have been sent to you.

Yours faithfully
 J. H. [?]

The letter to Alameda is annexed to proceed to Calcutta as soon as possible & I am to inform that you will receive a copy of the letter from the office of the British Consulate, but that you will not receive a copy of the letter from the office of the British Consulate in Calcutta which is referred to in the letter which is enclosed to you.

The fee to name will be added on the letter from Calcutta, so that by
