in British of a letter from the Ministry of Pensions, and can be seen that Capt. G. White had not been counted his services in the T.A. as a regular soldier for a war gratuity, and it is assumed that will be done before the case is referred to the War Office and Capt. White's services will be counted as regular soldier's services and he will be entitled to a gratuity of £100
