Paterson considers re-engagement Whitburn most inadvisable on grounds of health and temperament. Concur. Desp. follows.

Previous Paper

G.O.P.
42502

MINUTES

We must accept this as final, I think, against Miss Whitburn's re-employment.

The draft on 42502 might now be altered back to its original form & allowed to go on.

20 9.23.

"Most inadvisable" is strong; but health is not an argument as we should not in any case re-appoint her without med. exam. Her conf. reports do not suggest that her temperament is so impossible

Subsequent Paper

File 17706 EA Miss R.F. Nimmo

File 17743 EA Wilson, Miss

Recommended that the maximum salary of this post should be increased to £900 a year. Para 3. of the 4 orders under acknowledgement also refers to an incremental scale for this appointment. As the salary is now shown as £400 per year, someone has recommended a new salary as this rate instead of an incremental scale rising to £900.

as to facilitate against her further employment.
I feel very much
inclined to await the resp., meanwhile asking O.N.A. for ~~my~~ one more & adding to the letter that it
is not desired to consider Mrs. Whitburn
for this spot.

We will probably not receive any real
delay in getting the word (I mean as there is no change in the staff) and
time in Vancouver
anyhow.

C.J.J. 7-23
[When we get the resp. we can if necessary discuss with Dr. Gilks.
Promotions Dept. should of course see before a final decision as to him whether or not to take him]

Dr. Gilks will be here in Wed. or Thurs.
next week & we should discuss with him then.

I am looking into one vacancy in the office
proposals & too late here to go back before the 2nd

Dr. Gilks report on the
of 5-23 (1-4) & the report & added that Mrs.
Whitburn was not stricter on the 4th & too much. No one, however, stand to go long
