India Office,

23rd November, 1923.

My dear Devonshire,

Many thanks for your letter of the 22nd November, regarding the Kenya Immigration Bill. I quite appreciate the difficulty as regards postponing publication: but the point I meant to make to you on Wednesday (when I am afraid our talk had to be a very hurried one) was to ask whether the discussion of the Bill in the Legislative Council could not be held over until the new Council meets, or at any rate whether it must necessarily be taken so early as December. The Bill is to be debated within the next two or three weeks, there is really no margin of time in which to consult the Government of India as I have promised them. Perhaps you could let me know how this now stands.

Yours sincerely,

My dear Paul,

I have looked into the matter of the proposed Legislation and I see that the Governor in his telegram of 11th March said that the Bill would be introduced in the next few days. I think therefore it would be desirable to postpone publication until the Bill is introduced.

But even if it could be done, it would be most undesirable. The Governor is, I think, quite right in regarding the franchise and immigration questions as separate matters. He says that the feeling is that nothing is more likely to prevent the two being dealt with together.

My dear Peel,

Your further letter regarding the Immigration Bill reaches me at the same time as the telegram from the Governor which is going to you of the 11th.

The telegram shows that owing to the necessity for getting Uganda's agreement in actual terms of the Bill, publication was delayed till yesterday and I gather that the sending of copies here and to India will have been accordingly postponed.

The time for discussion will certainly be very short, and I have not yet heard when the Council will meet in December.

It may well be necessary to give the Immigration Bill the attention of the Council members will be at the election of the members of the Council. I am not sure that any discussion with India is possible.
