For all the money it would have been unsafe to tell us of those heavy

 APRIL 1920

My Lord,

In reply to Your Lordship's telegram of the 23rd of March on the subject of shortage of currency

I have the honour to attach a statement of the issues of coin from the Currency Note Guarantee Fund from the beginning of January to the end of March 1920 showing for what purposes the coin was drawn in each case. This statement will, I think, be sufficient to explain how the coin reserve has come to be depleted. It is usual for the National Bank of India to import a large quantity of Rupees every year for the Uganda Cotton Crop, but at the present time not only is the exportation of Rupees from India prohibited but the Banks are not prepared to purchase from India Rupees or one Rupee notes, which have a local exchange value of 2/-, at a cost considerably above their exchange value. For this reason also there is no demand for release locally of Indian one Rupee notes, which have to be paid for in Rupees in India, and I therefore propose to return the surplus stock, amounting to 39 lakhs, to India at the first opportunity

RIGHT HONOURABLE

VISCOUNT MILNER, P.C., G.C.B., G.C.M.G., &c., &c.

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,

DOWNING STREET,

LONDON, E.C.

There will however be some delay in getting these ready for shipment as reports of the B. Bank have been issued and distributed, and the staff is unable to make rapid progress with the sorting, packing, and counting of them.

2. My reason for wishing to allow the coin to be in the hands of the Currency Commissioners to go into circulation through the Banks without restriction is because it should in this manner serve a more useful purpose than if kept in reserve, and as any attempt to withhold it is liable to prove a stimulant to hoarding. It is probable that the position will improve when the harvest of the Uganda Cotton is over and the collection of Salt and Poll Tax begins, and as the shortage of coin has threatened to affect the labour supply, I have considered that the present rate at which I will also should be sent of the coin to the Currency Commissioners.

3. Although, as has been stated above, some improvement in the position is anticipated I cannot urge too strongly the necessity for accelerating the delivery of the new coinage.

I have the honour to be,
Your Lordship's
faithful obedient servant,

ACTING GOVERNOR
