28 May 1920

Dear Sir,

With ref. to your letter Mr/Miss. 1457 of the 5th of May, I am to inform you that he has consulted the O.A.B. of the E.A.P. with regard to the difficulty of filling the vacancy for a draughtsman on the Uya. Rly.

2. An additional draughtsman is now urgently required, and the O.A.B. has

DRAFT.

MINUTE.

- Mr. Jeffries 26.5.20.
- Mr. Parkinson 27/5
- Mr.
- Mr. Grindle.
- Sir H. Lambert.
- Sir H. Road.
- Sir G. Fiddes.
- Col. Amery.
- Lord Milner.

has suggested that if it is impossible to obtain candidates on the approved scale, the two vacancies might be advertised

as for Assistant (at £300 - £500 plus war bonus)

men being selected with experience

as draughtsmen, and the agreements stating that they would be employed as draughtsmen.

3.1 Upon deciding to act

Lord Kilmer was reluctant to depart from the revised salary

(£300 - £400) which he has approved for these posts, and before deciding to adopt Sir C.

Bosnyk's suggestion he would be glad to learn whether you consider that, as an alternative,

an offer of £350 ^{or possibly £400} ~~with 1/2 interest~~

war bonus, ~~on that scale~~ ^{on the scale}

~~offer~~ would ~~be~~ suffice to obtain candidates. (am)
