July 8th 1912.

No. 469

I have the honour to ask that your formal sanction may be given to expend in 1912-13 the unexpended balance, amounting to £47,071, of the special grant for Magadi (1911-12) of £75,000.

2. In the Fourth Supplementary Estimate, Item 51, a sum of £66,600 was included for Special Expenditure for Magadi covered by the grant of £75,000.

3. Of the amount so voted only £27,929 was expended, and I have the honour to request that a revote be made of £38,671 (i.e. £66,600 less £27,929) being the unexpended balance of sum voted in 1911-12, and your sanction accorded for the expenditure of £2,470, being the amount remaining (in balances) of the grant of £75,000.

4. The amount unexpended has not been taken into consideration as savings to cover additional expenditure during 1912-13.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE
LEWIS HARCOURT, P.
