6th September 1912.

Sir,

In pursuance of the second paragraph of your letter of the 18th of June No. 18345/1912 relative to Messrs Rendel and Robertson's employment as Government Inspecting Engineers in connection with the Magadi Railway, I enclose copies of two accounts submitted by them in respect of their out of pocket expenses up to the 30th of March and the 30th of June last respectively. The former has already been paid on the authority of your letter of the 8th of June No. 16767/1912, and the latter is now being passed for payment.

2. I also enclose a copy of a letter from Messrs Rendel and Robertson from which it appears that some few items may still be outstanding.
3. The fee of £500 for general advice also sanctioned by your letter referred to above, has still to be paid, together with any further office expenses which may be incurred.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

Under Secretary of State

Magadi - Inspection of Material

Gentlemen,

In reply to your E/283/20 of 21st June and subsequent enquiries by telephone, we beg to say that the accounts for the June quarter forwarded to you on August 17th included all expenditure on Magadi Inspection and drawing account that we yet know of, but there may be some small bills which have not reached us, and some expenditure may occur on drawings and specifications upon which Messrs. Livesey still find it necessary to communicate with us, and the accounts include no part of our own fee.
