Abyssinian mission to Nairobi.

Leads dep. P. Adis Ababa stating that for. Ed. has no objection to proposed mission.

Sir G. Fiddes

I had minuted & drafted on 7.0. / 314 before this reached me. on the whole, I would now simply to the 7.0. letters that Mr. Harcourt sees no objection to the proposed visit of Abyssinians to Nairobi. Sir P. Girouard has been fairly warned by Major Doughty. Wylie's resp. of the 29th of Nov. that the Abyssinians will expect to be treated as guests. But the cost is not likely to be great, & good results may be expected.
